Literary Residence Program

Reading Balkans Residency – Ukraine 2018

The Literary Residence Program 'Reading Balkans 2018' is open to welcome fiction writers, poets, essayists and playwrights from Ukraine.

The Literary Residency is prearranged by Reading Balkans project in cooperation with the Publishing House Goga (SI), Goten Publishing (MKD), Udruženje Krokodil (SRB). Reading Balkans project is co-funded by Creative Europe program of European Union.

We are in particular paying attention in writers who are innovative, who in their works deal with contemporary themes and topics.

We will enable the participation of writers of all ages and sexes with a common criterion: that their works reflect topics of reconciliation, the role of culture in (post)conflict societies, and the importance of dialogue to fight nationalism and intolerance.

For the year 2018, the call for applications is launched for 3 authors. Each residency duration will be 4 weeks. All residencies will be arranged between September 2018 and February 2019.
